McCabe Rules Picket Order Still in Effect

EL CENTRO Calif. — Superior Judge Hilton McCabe has ruled that a restraining order against picketing of lettuce farms in the Imperial Valley still is in effect.

McCabe ruled on the matter Friday after hearing arguments from attorneys for Bud Antle Inc., the Imperial Valley Farmers Association and two AFL-CIO affiliates, the United Packinghouse Workers of America and the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee.

On his return, an aide said he appeared fit and in good spirits.

THE AIDE STRESSED the 70-year-old former Chief Executive's brief medical session served a two-fold purpose — to determine the current state of Eisenhower's health and serve to acquaint him with the medical staff which will serve him during his visit here.

Mary Jane McCaffrey, the ex-president's secretary, said there were no plans to release any reports on the results of the check-up.

AT MARCH AFB

Ike Has Routine Health Checkup

Former President Eisenhower interrupted his desert vacation Friday to fly to March Air Force Base for a "routine medical checkup" on advice of his doctors.

Eisenhower, who suffered a serious heart attack in 1955, finished 18 holes of golf, returned to his modernistic $100,000 cottage at the Eldorado Country Club and left from Desert Airpark by plane for the base hospital in the afternoon.

HE MADE THE 70-mile trip back in time to dine with his wife, Mamie, and friends.

RUSSIAN DEMAND FOR U.N. MEET ON LUMUMBA DENIED

Kennedy, Top Experts on Russia, Meet

Session Could Lead to Meeting With Khrushchev

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy conferred with top U. S. experts on Russia for two hours today in a White House session that could lead to a meeting with Soviet Premier, Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson emerged from the conference to say "It was just an informal conference, one of many we are having."

JOHNSON WOULD not comment further. The other officials left the White House without seeing reporters.

The meeting, which broke up at 12:17 p.m. (e.s.t.) was called by Kennedy to chart what he hopes will be a more dynamic American approach to the critical cold war issues between the United States and Russia.

SUMMONED TO the strategy meeting were Secretary of State Dean Rusk and four Soviet affairs experts who have served as ambassadors to Moscow during four presidential administrations—Llewellyn E. Thompson, the present envoy; Charles E. Bohlen, special adviser to Rusk on Russia; roving Ambassador Averell Harriman, and George F. Kennan, ambassador designate to Yugoslavia.

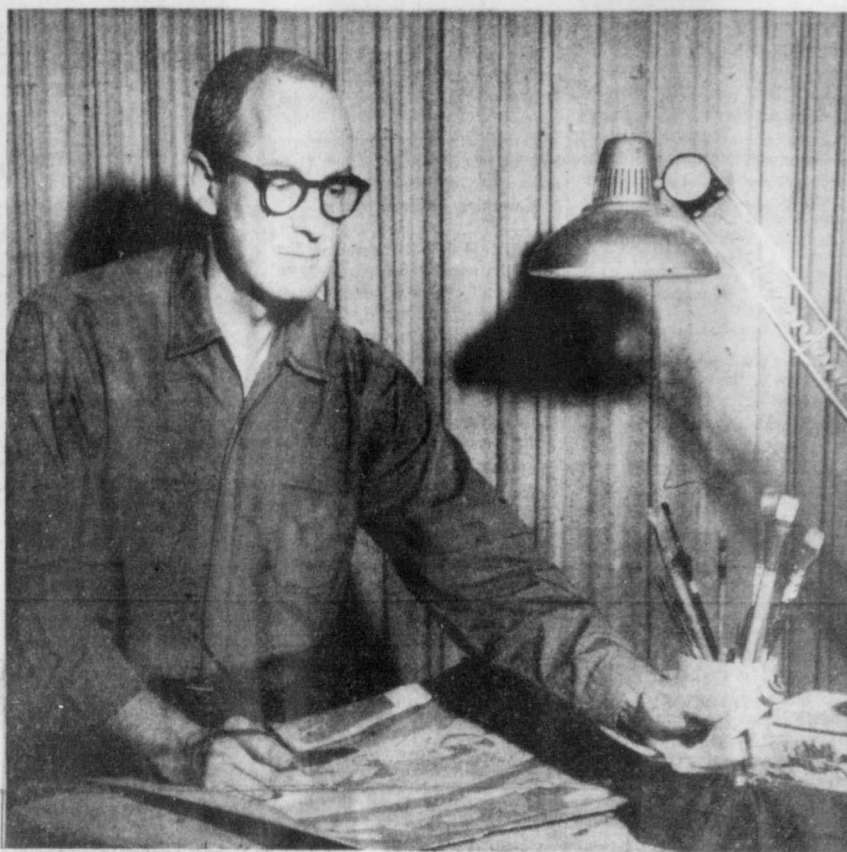

Joining in the meeting in the cabinet room was Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Kennedy went to the conference after witnessing the swearing in of Robert C. Weaver as federal Housing Administrator. The President expressed his "highest confidence" in the "loyalty, integrity and ability" of Weaver, a New York Negro whose nomination stirred up a controversy in the Senate.

BALL HAS EXHIBIT IN N.Y. GALLERY

By PEYTON CANARY

Abstract paintings by Palm Springs advertising executive Everett L. Ball are featured in a series of shows now on view at the Contemporary Arts Gallery in New York.

Ball was invited to participate in the shows by the judging committee after the gallery had exhibited his "A Face of the World" in its mid-winter show, and purchased his "Composition" for the Collectors of American Art. "Composition" will be reproduced in the annual Collectors' Bulletin and forwarded to 2,500 museums and collectors.

BALL DESCRIBES his bright, vigorous abstractions as a "crystallization" of longtime personal questions about the direction of his painting. A painter since 1946 when he toured Australia with a road company of "The Voice of the Turtle," Ball became "bored with simple—even free reproductions—of the external world." Non-objectivity, he found, has opened "whole new worlds of content" in expression, leaves freedom similar to that of music to establish expression which offers broad interpretive vistas to the public.

"There are endless parallels between this kind of painting and Mayor Frank Bogert, in a telephone call from Governor Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, learned today that he has been appointed to the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority.

ACCIDENTS DROP BELOW 1960 MARK

Accidents in 1961 dropped below the comparable 1960 figure during the past week, the Palm Springs Safety Council revealed today in its weekly report.

Accidents for 1960 totalled 29, with only 27 recorded in 1961. In addition, two fatalities were recorded in 1960.

Safety Council officials urged that residents and visitors continue to exercise top caution, and continue the good record.

Escape Car 'Found' Wrecked in Ditch

By United Press International

The Soviet Union today failed in an attempt to call an emergency session of the United Nations Security Council on reports Congolese ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba had been killed.

The refusal by Sir Patrick Deane, British president of the council for the month of February, came as the Katanga government said the escape car reportedly used by Lumumba had been found so badly wrecked in a drainage ditch the shock to the occupants "must have been violent."

THE ANNOUNCEMENT that Lumumba had met with violence increased the belief in some United Nations quarters that the reported escape really was a cover story for his death. There were reports the International Red Cross would be called in to try to find out if he actually had been murdered.

A spokesman for this secessionist province said search parties had reached the Lumumba escape car some 40 miles from his prison site at Mutshatsha, 340 miles northeast of Elisabethville near the Angola border, and found it in a ditch.

"THERE WAS NO trace of any injury to the occupants despite the shock they suffered which must have been violent," the spokesman said.

The spokesman said overnight rains had obscured Lumumba's trail from the car.

The Katanga government issued a communique insisting that Lumumba escaped Thursday night with two aides, Maurice Mpolo, minister of youth in the deposed Lumumba government, and Joseph Okito, vice president of the Senate.

Two Indio Men Suffer Major Injuries in Crash

JOSHUA TREE — Two Indio residents, Orval Lee Kiny, 43-619 King Street, and William Gilbert Owens, 43-550 Main Street, were taken to Ince Hospital in Twenty-nine Palms with major injuries following an automobile accident at 3:39 a.m., today, six miles east of here.

BY COUNTY CLERK

Voting Machine Opposition Asked

RIVERSIDE — The county board of supervisors will consider a recommendation of county clerk Gordon Pequegnat that the supervisors oppose legislation that would require voting machines in counties, and eight other matters of interest to the Desert area during the meeting which will convene at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

Hearings to begin at 10 a.m. will include one on a resolution of intention to abandon public utility easements in tract 2027 in the Indian Wells district, and a further hearing on the petition by the City of Blythe for annexation of non-contiguous territory.

PLANNING MATTERS will include a recommendation to approve the O. F. Opperman record of survey in the Desert Hot Springs area, and a recommendation to initiate proceedings for changing the name of Smead Road in the

THE COMMUNIQUE came after a growing list of nations began demanding an investigation of the escape report and after the Soviet Union told Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold it was "very much alarmed" by murder reports.

The communique "emphatically denied" the jailbreak was staged as a cover-up and asked the local population to help catch the former premier. But neither Katanga nor United Nations officials appeared anxious to make a full investigation.

The Elisabethville government said it was throwing planes, troops and local tribesmen—most of them violently anti-Lumumba—into the search. It again warned that the trio is believed heavily armed with Mauser rifles wrested from their guards.

Marilyn Enters New Hospital, Visited by Joe

NEW YORK — Actress Marilyn Monroe has been admitted to Presbyterian Hospital for a "rest and checkup" and her ex-husband Joe DiMaggio was her first visitor, it was announced today.

A spokesman for the hospital on Manhattan's upper West Side ended the 9-hour mystery which shrouded Miss Monroe's whereabouts since she checked out of Payne Whitney Clinic, a psychiatric unit of New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center at 5 p.m. Friday.

BUT HE REFUSED to disclose whether the blonde actress was a patient in the New York Neurological Institute, part of the huge complex that makes up the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

The spokesman said, however, that no psychiatric tests were being made on Miss Monroe "at the moment."

Miscellaneous matters include a request of the county airport commission to reject all bids for purchase of buildings at Blythe airport, and authorize sale of the buildings through negotiations at the airport.

OTHER MISCELLANEOUS matters are:

— Recommendation of the county clerk for disbursement of guaranty bonds on proceedings for the Desert Hot Springs incorporation attempt.

— Clerk's recommendation against voting machine law.

— Resolution granting the Idyllwild County Water District permission to drill test wells in the Idyllwild county park.

— A resolution setting hearing for annexation of territory to Desert Hot Springs county fire protection district.

Supervisors Tab Group to Eye Jobless Problem

A committee was appointed by the Board of Supervisors this week to keep in touch with the problem of joblessness and the distribution of food should the need arise in this county.

Members of the committee which was proposed by Supervisor Paul Anderson are Captain Bob Tobin of the Salvation Army, Ken Phillips of United Fund, Supervisor Norman Davis, board chairman, Supervisor Anderson, Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen and Welfare Director John McIntyre.

Supervisor Fred McCall expressed fear of friction. He said he thought it would be better to have a committee work with the welfare department, and for the board in turn to consider the advice of the welfare department, but he agreed to go along with the proposed committee as an advisory group.

WEAVER PLEDGES 'BETTER' HOUSING

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Robert C. Weaver, confirmed as federal housing administrator over southern protests, has promised to work with Congress "toward our common goal of better homes and communities for all Americans."

Weaver, approved by the Senate Thursday night, will be the highest ranking Negro official in the federal government. His annual salary will be $21,000.

AFTER THE VOICE vote confirmation, Weaver issued a statement expressing his gratitude for the Senate approval and the speed with which the chamber acted.

He said, "It will be my purpose to work with understanding and cooperation with all the members of the Congress toward our common goal of better homes and communities for all Americans."

Several southerners complained that Weaver advocated "forced integration" of public housing.

HE TOLD THE SENATE Banking Committee before it approved his nomination Wednesday that he adhered to the principle of integrated public housing. But he said as housing chief he would abide by policies laid down by the President and Congress.

Only about 25 senators were on the floor when the vote was taken. Several of the southern senators who had made long speeches against Weaver's nomination did not bother to appear for the vote.

About eight southern Democrats and Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, spoke out against Weaver, former New York state rent administrator.

Kennedy Eyes $1-Billion Aid For Schools

Congress Reeling In Face of New Tax Hike Plan

WASHINGTON, D.C. — President Kennedy will ask Congress shortly to approve a federal aid-to-education program costing $1 billion a year.

It was learned today that Kennedy will ask for about $600 million a year in grants to elementary and secondary schools. The President would allow the states to decide whether to spend the money for classrooms, teachers' salaries or both.

The Chief Executive will spell out his aid-to-education proposals in a special message to Congress Tuesday.

MEANWHILE CONGRESS was reeling a bit today from President Kennedy's proposals that would increase taxes about $2.8 billion a year, with almost every U.S. worker and employer helping to pay the bill.

Probably the best one-word summation of the reaction came from a liberal Democrat who exclaimed: "Wow!"

The consensus was that Kennedy had bitten off far more than Congress could chew despite two factors working in his favor:

—THE HIGHER payroll levies would be needed if Congress is to provide all the new welfare benefits proposed by Kennedy for more than 17 million persons. The proposed benefits include a new program of hospitalization and nursing care for 14 million persons 65 or older, 2 bigger Social Security checks for widows, and 3 an extension of jobless pay for three million workers who have, or are expected to, exhaust their unemployment compensation.

—Only a small portion of the additional taxes would take effect before the 1962 congressional elections. The full effect would be felt starting Jan. 1, 1963, and would come on top of a $2.2 billion increase in Social Security taxes already scheduled to help pay for existing benefits.

THUS, ADOPTION of Kennedy's welfare proposals would mean imposition of a total of $5 billion a year in additional payroll taxes, starting Jan. 1, 1963.

At present the maximum Social Security tax is $144 a year and is paid by every worker covered by the program who earns as much as $4,800 a year. Employers must match employee contributions. Self-employed pay 50 per cent more, or a maximum of $216.

Existing law will boost these maximums to $184 and $252 on Jan. 1, 1963. If Kennedy's proposals are enacted in full, the maximum tax take would jump to $200 and $300, respectively, on that date for workers earning $5,000 a year or more.

BARRON'S Confidence Index SCORES AGAIN!

The rule is that the market will not turn less than 2 months or more than 4 months after the Confidence Index turns. This occurs 89% of the time near the 2-month point. (See Sept. 7, 1959, and Nov. 14, 1960 issues of Barron's for a complete discussion of their Confidence Index.)

This Index made a minor top the weekend of Nov. 2nd. The DJIA made a top February 2nd — exactly two months later. We consider that to be a bulls-eye score for Barron's Confidence Index. Even though it may prove to be a minor top as the Index indicates, it prevented us from buying at that time.

New Jersey Library Maps More 'Scofflaw' Arrests

EAST ORANGE, N. J. — Police were given a free hand today to continue arresting library scofflaws with midnight roundups of delinquent book borrowers again in the offing.

A detailed plan to speed the return of long overdue books to the East Orange Public Library was prepared Thursday.

THE NEW THREE-step plan for replenishing the library shelves came about after the 14 persons arrested earlier in the week let it be known they thought the police action was a bit drastic.

Twelve of them were fined from $10 to $25 and two were acquitted. Two others still face arraignment. Most had been hauled to the police station late at night and some spent the night in jail when they failed to raise bail money.

The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) cried foul and said the action smacked of the police state.

THE NEW PLAN was devised at a city hall meeting between Mayor James W. Kelly Jr., Police Chief John McGinty, City Counsel William Brach and Police Commissioner Lloyd Atkins.

The upshot of the conference was a three-stage plan for police to follow against violators of an ordinance passed last September. Under the plan police must first telephone the delinquent book borrower and give him two days to get to court. If that fails, police must visit the offender's home "between the reasonable hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m." and give him verbal warning to get to court within three days.

"If both warnings have been ignored, police must wait 72 hours and then they are permitted to take any steps necessary to make arrests at any time," Kelly said.

Grone Tells UJA Global Welfare Plan

$80,000 Village Goal Will Aid World's Helpless

The nation-wide United Jewish Appeal, beneficiary of the Palm Springs UJA drive, was characterized today as a "great global welfare federation" by Max Grone, 1961 Chairman.

Meeting the crucial needs of 575,500 men, women and children in 27 countries, Grone declared, "the United Jewish Appeal is the largest Jewish welfare body in the world today."

COMPARING THE international operation to the work of local welfare groups, Grone stated the UJA through its beneficiary agencies reaches the young and old, the untrained and under privileged, the handicapped and the displaced on a wide front.

Grone pointed to the fact that UJA - supported child care programs last year reached a total of 179,000 children. This figure does not include infants receiving medical care, who were among 140,000 people of all ages reached by UJA hospital, clinic and out-patient care in 1960, Grone stated.

IN ADDITION TO maintaining these far-flung, large-scale welfare programs, Grone indicated the United Jewish Appeal must meet the economic needs of 130,000 farm settlers in Israel, help provide housing for 40,000 immigrants, and aid more than 50,000 children in Moslem lands, whose "very lives depend on the hot meals and inoculations provided by UJA."

The Palm Springs community has adopted a goal of $80,000 for the UJA drive, Grone stated, "which is an absolute bare minimum to cover the many needs."

School District Asked to Revise Plans for Site

The City Council has requested the Palm Springs Unified School District to revise its plan for a proposed new elementary school in the Racquet Club Road Estates area in order to avoid conflict with proposed street patterns.

The council noted that the proposed site of the new elementary school — on raw land in the Racquet Club Road Estates area between Racquet Club Road and Francis Drive — would sit squarely in the middle of the scheduled path of Via Miraleste.

The council voted 6-0 to ask the school district to rearrange its plan in order to avoid conflict with the street pattern.

Mosk Sends Two Investigators to Lettuce Strike

EL CENTRO — Two additional special investigators were dispatched by California's Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk today to the Imperial Valley strike area.

Mosk's action came as shotgun-carrying sheriff's deputies patrolled 75 farm camps housing Mexican National laborers against a new flareup of violence in the valley's bitter farm labor dispute.

"LAW ENFORCEMENT has not broken down in the valley," Mosk said in Sacramento, "but we have been asked by both Sheriff Herbert Hughes and by union representatives to investigate the charges and counter-charges that arise during times of tension."

Mosk said that Harry Cooper and Sidney Jones, of the state Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, were being sent to join investigator Joel Taylor in the valley.

MOSK SAID THE THREE had been instructed to maintain "impartiality and objectivity."

"They are to present in the Imperial Valley solely to counsel peace officers, labor and the growers in means of preserving law and order," Mosk said.

Welcome Bremerton Residents

On behalf of residents of Palm Springs, The Desert Sun today welcomes all former residents of Bremerton and Kitsap County, Washington, who will hold their ninth annual picnic at Tamarisk Park Sunday.

Many of these residents now spend the winter in the Coachella Valley, and others arrange their vacations to coincide with the event. Last year 440 former residents were in attendance and a larger number is expected this year. They represented 10 states and 16 Washington and 44 California cities.

Palm Springs is honored by having been selected as the original picnic site, with the group returning every year.

Its popularity, evidenced by its growth, might warrant an investigation by the Chamber of Commerce or City to see if similar events could be promoted during the winter season, and become a regular part of Palm Springs activities.

Sitzkreig 1961...

WASHINGTON, D. C. — President Kennedy's frank complaint that the U. S. "has continued to bear more than its share" of West European defense harks back to a Defense Department attitude of still broader frankness.

Briefly, some Pentagon officials started in December to re-examine a proposition left behind by the Eisenhower Administration. As reported last autumn in this place, Mr. Eisenhower's now-reversed decision to bring home thousands of military dependents was a prelude to something more.

HE WAS UNDER the sternest advice to tell the Western allies that he would "bring the boys home" unless they substantially increased their contribution in money and manpower. I asked a top Eisenhower advisor if the then-President should, provided his bluff were called, really pull home some troops. The answer was: "Sure!"

With this background, the post-election Pentagon meets the idea of troop withdrawal head-on. NATO Commander Lauris Norstad has set 30 ground divisions as his minimum requirement. Today he has 20 divisions "on paper," but a Pentagon source volunteered that the force in being was not that big.

FRANCE, WITH A commitment of four divisions, has less than one in Central Europe. Britain's five infantry and two armored brigades are all under strength. So are Holland's two divisions. Germany, with an obligation to provide 12 divisions, is still "organizing," but is unable to achieve fulfillment because the Bundesrat has limited the draft to one year and the total military manpower to 170,000 bodies.

Despite these deficits, the Defense Department appears to be going on the aggressive, policy-wise. Since its inception, the alliance often has been described as a "trip-wire" or "plate glass" which is intended to set off an alarm but not to stop 450,000 Russians plus their satellites. A Pentagon spokesman gives this the direct contradiction. "It is not intended that these troops be a trip-wire. It is intended that they be capable of defending Western Europe."

FOR THESE REASONS, and with the alliance at least as strong as its strength, the Kennedy Administration may now be expected to shake up the Allies for contributions, but not to threaten any removal—or promise any increase—of our own five divisions. We may be coming to a point where armies once more are considered as fighting forces—not deterrents—and Europe considered a possible battlefield—not a diplomatic chessboard. Whether frankness in Washington will produce realistic actions by the Allies is something else. The President referred to NATO as being "in some disarray." He might accurately have made the language stronger. The diplomacies involving the Inner Six and Outer Seven common markets are competing for advantage among themselves, and for exclusion of U. S. goods.

MR. KENNEDY'S previously taken positions against European colonialism are good Americanism and not likely to be recanted—but they are wholly incompatible with the economies and policies of France, Belgium and Portugal, to name no others. The most imposing difficulty in all the Free World military planning is that the Communist World always, up till now at least, holds the initiative. No matter how able we are to defend West Europe, we cannot anticipate that Russia will ever attack us there, and allow up to prove it. The more we put into Europe, the more we must sacrifice in other danger places.

Until Mr. Kennedy captures the initiative, or scares the enemy into a pacific mood, the history of Europe is repeating the sitzkreig of 1939-40, which allowed Hitler to pick his time and spots.

Editor The Desert Sun

In the Jan. 28 issue of your valued paper—Editorial page—under the heading "Grandest Larceny in History," is a dissertation by a correspondent in Washington, D. C., in which he arrives at, or quotes, a fantastic figure as to the value of the dollar today as compared with its purchasing power in 1938. Briefly, he arrives at the figure of 51.7 cents.

All of which reminds me of the "scare headlines" in the newspapers some years ago when it was proposed to increase the national debt from 40 to 50 billion dollars. The "intellectuals" master-minded the figures and each, it would appear, dropped his solution in a hat. When the "lucky number" was pulled out it read that if any such increase in the debt were to be consummated the result would be bankruptcy.

The debt today has been gradually increased to 380 billions and the old "Ship of State" is still moving even though most of the headway is caused by drifting hither and yon.

There are statements that are better left unsaid. Just yesterday President Kennedy ordered "smog arrestors" placed on all public utterances by our "top brass."

But, in my humble opinion, our people should not be misled as to what this crazy age in which we are living has done to their pocketbooks. Wouldn't it be "a grand and glorious feeling" if our dollar were worth 51.7 cents today. There wouldn't be so many heart failures and ulcers if such were the case.

So "let's look at the record," as Al Smith used to say. I didn't get these figures out of books or through ledgerheads either—I have "lived" them.

Back in 1938, when I returned from the army, I purchased a 10 acre estate, near Seattle, for the munificent sum of $3,400—$750 down and $30 a month payments. There were two cleared acres, brand new two-story house, guest cottage with garage, etc. etc.—a heavenly layout on a pure water lake. I left in 1941 and returned to active duty.

I sold the place for what I paid for it—and within the course of a few years the purchaser received $36,000 for it. So much for the advance in real estate.

So, according to my recollection, 1941 marked the start of the dollar movement down hill. From 1935 to 1941 some of the prices I recall were as follows: Salmon 15 cents a pound. Incidentally when it was raised to 20 cents a pound I refused to buy it. Today the price is 85 cents a pound.

Carpenter's wages $3 a day, helpers $2. In 1955 I renovated an older house and paid $34 a day to the carpenter—his helper was paid $26 a day. The plumber set me back $65 a day—the plasterers and painters $25 to $30.

In 1937 I visited Palm Springs during the height of the season and paid $4 a night for a lovely room and bath—the same thing today would cost $25. The owner of the newly furnished, newly constructed 4-unit building in the heart of town offered to sell it to me for $12,000.

A well known candy in Los Angeles at this time was selling for 40 cents a pound. Today the price has been hiked to $1.30 a pound.

My wife recently "vacationed" in a Los Angeles hospital. The "tariff" doctor's bill not included, amounted, on the average, to $120 a day.

In 1917 I took out a War Risk Insurance policy for $10,000. After the war it was converted to a 20-year policy—$31.50 was deducted each month from my pay check. I now receive $32 a month on the policy—the price of a dinner check at a good restaurant for a party of four. In order to reimburse me today for the 1917 value the amount paid monthly should be at least $320.

This will give you some idea of what the government has done to its older citizens who took out endowment policies, etc. years ago.

Back in "the good old days" my house rent, for a brand new two-story house, ran about $35 a month. Today it's practically impossible to find a good apartment in a good neighborhood for $100 a month. The so-called "swanky" ones in Los Angeles—well, I'd be ashamed to quote figures.

Yes, something is rotten, as the columnist says, but it's not in Denmark.

In the preamble of the American Legion Constitution there is a paragraph that reads as follows: "To prevent the autocracy of both the classes and the masses." In other words one category of our citizenry should not be allowed to advance at the expense of another. The doctrine is sound.

When the so-called "New Deal" came into being, with its Pollyanna theories, it inoculated our economy with a lot of hitherto unknown viruses—it turned the labor steering wheel over to racketeers and proceeded to recognize Red Russia. What has happened since is better left unsaid.

We repeatedly hear the term "inflation" applied to the present situation. In my opinion it is definitely not inflation but a condition that has slowly but surely eaten into the vitals of our economy. Where it will end is anybody's guess, but unless we begin to think of taking drastic action the future of our great country is black indeed. The two diseases I have mentioned—Communism and Labor Racketeering—must be arrested as soon as possible before the patient is permanently crippled.

Respectfully submitted, Malcolm P. Andruss, Colonel, U. S. Army, (Ret.), 529 West Arenas Road

He's at It Again

This Side of The Sun

Tomorrow we honor Honest Abe Who wrote emancipation. Not only that but he's the one They say who saved the nation.

Tomorrow is the 132nd anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, the 16th president of the United States. He is rated one of our greatest.

THE HOLIDAY, as usual when one falls on Sunday, will be observed on Monday.

Public offices will be closed but banks and stores will be open as usual so the three-day holiday will not tend to jam up traffic as three-day holidays ordinarily do.

But there will be special observances and other ceremonies to honor the day.

LINCOLN was born on Feb. 12, 1809, in Kentucky. Although there are Lincoln memorials all over Illinois, from which state he went to the presidency, he didn't move to Illinois until he was 30 years old. He stopped en route in Indiana.

Abe was the first full-fledged Republican to be elected. There were all sorts of other political parties before Horace Greeley, also born in February, founded the Republican party.

HONEST ABE was one of three of our presidents born in the shortest month. You all know the big one, George Washington, whose birthday we'll celebrate in a couple of weeks. The other I bet you don't know.

I didn't either until I looked it up—William Henry Harrison, whose grandson, Ben, was the 23rd president.

So much for history. HEARD A NEW ONE the other day which concerns our climate and the climate in the east these days.

It was a new excuse for discontinuing a newspaper. Mr. C. A. Black of New York wrote the circulation department of The Desert Sun the other day:

"Please discontinue when present subscription expires. The paper makes us so envious."

Probably after looking at pretty girls in shorts in news and society page pictures and then gazing out of the window at the piled-high snow drifts.

IN A LOCAL eating place the other morning two salesmen were dunking doughnuts. And I heard a new simile.

"Did you sell Mr. Blank?" asked one.

"Sell him? Man, he's harder to sell than peddling a garbage disposal unit to a hog rancher!" This guy is lying.

THERE'S REALLY nothing as enjoyable or which brightens up than to have someone ask him a newspaperman's day more for an article that appeared either in his paper or in some other one, two or three years ago, somewhere between January and December.

In conclusion, this being that time of year, income tax collectors, in checkin over returns, often make one deduction—This guy is lying.

DICK WEST:

Ham 'Testifies'

WASHINGTON — If — Whenever I visit the underground chambers of the House Space Committee, my brain seems to lose its thrust and I get a feeling of mental weightlessness. I first noticed this sensation a year or two ago when some of the committee members began discussing the possibility of growing two-dimensional tomatoes on the moon.

AT THE TIME, I was sitting at the press table, both feet on the floor, taking notes in a normal manner. The next moment I found myself mentally strolling through a garden where all the vegetables had length and width but no depth. A phenomenon of absconding reality has reoccurred several times, usually when there is talk of putting hospitals into orbit or of throwing baseballs faster than the speed of light.

IT CAME UPON me again as the committee, at its first gathering of the year, was viewing a film taken during the recent space ride by a chimpanzee named Ham.

All of us probably are curious as to what it would feel like to fly through space. This is normal and nothing to worry about. It is just a harmless outcropping of what psychiatrists call the "Peter Pan complex."

IT LIKEWISE IS natural to wonder how the chimp felt as he was soaring along through the elements. Darwin explained this affinity years ago.

It is not, however necessarily a good sign if you also get to wondering what it would be like if the committee called in the chimp to testify about his experiences. But that's the way the committee affects me.

ALL DURING THE film, I kept seeing Ham in the witness chair being questioned by Chairman Overton Brooks, D-La. The hearing went something like this:

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband hired a man to follow me. I noticed this man everywhere I went, so I finally struck up a conversation with him. We found each other to be very good company. He talked too much and now I have more on my husband than he has on me.

My husband was trying to get grounds to divorce me. He instructed this man to get grounds by hook or by crook. I don't believe in divorce and intend to stay married until the day I die. We have children and I don't want any scandal. Do you think a woman is foolish for hanging on to a man who will try everything under the sun to get rid of her? I still love him.

MARRIED FOR KEEPS

DEAR MARRIED: Giving a man a divorce simply because he wants one is, in my opinion, the poorest reason of all for severing the marriage ties. If you love him—hang on to him.

DEAR ABBY: I am ten years old and have a question for you. How do you tell whether a goldfish is male or female? One of my goldfish has a dip in it. Could this be the female? I have three goldfish and would like to know. Please answer me in the paper. Yours truly, MARTHA J.

DEAR MARTHA: During the breeding season, which is from May to September, the male goldfish develops a white edge along his top fins. From September until May nobody knows but God and the goldfish.

DEAR ABBY: I have a close friend who told me not to bring my baby over to her house any more because her dog gets jealous. I know this is true because I had my baby over there and her dog cried and carried on so terrible it ruined my afternoon. I like to visit with this person but I don't have anybody to leave my baby with. Don't you think, if she really cared for my company, she would look up her dog for a few hours? Or is there a better solution I am overlooking? CLOSE FRIEND

DEAR CLOSE: Invite her to YOUR house. And ask her to leave her dog at home.

What's your problem? For a personal reply from Abby, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

'Let 'Em Eat Filet'--Glaser

By GEORGE LAINE

In case your history professor told you, as mine told me, that Marie Antoinette declared — when informed that her subjects were starving — they should eat cake, better take another look.

Ernie Glaser, French-reared and French-schooled, insists that such isn't the case.

GLASER'S POINT hinges on a lingual point. Did Marie aver "Laissez les manger de la brioche" as quoted in the history books?

"She did not," claims Glaser. "What she really said was 'Laissez les manger de la filet mignon,' which means let them eat steak."

Glaser has a similar idea over at his Hot Dog Show of Palm Springs. But he doesn't want to end up as the headless hot dog salesman of Palm Canyon Drive. So he's guarding his words.

"MARIE ANTOINETTE advised her subjects to eat filet — I'm sure I'm right about it being filet — at a time when they had no money to buy liver," said Ernie. "But everyone can afford $1.60 for a beautiful piece of meat like this."

In case you're a newspaper reporter or fall into some other low-salaried line of work ("The glamour is worth millions," Phat Graettinger keeps telling me), you can avail yourself of Mlle. Antoinette's companion, the Louis XV Hamburger, a gastronomical masterpiece that defies description and which comes in at a $1.25 quotation. ("Everything is regal but the price," says Glaser.

And now, to head off the avalanche of history teachers, I'd like to refer them all to Ernie. It's his story.

JERI SULLIVAN, who holds down the entertainment spotlight over at Bob Howard's Sportsman, dropped in the office the other day.

"George," she began, with a note of panic in her voice, "Jack's leaving. What'll I do?"

Jack is, of course, Jack Pfeiffer, the unusually talented pianist-real estate salesman who has functioned in a multitude of musical capacities in town, none more effective than his backgrounding stint for Miss Sullivan.

I'd suggest a pianist audition, Jeri. And if that doesn't work out, get Bob to put the arm on Pfeiffer.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Don't miss tonight's opening of Don Tosti's group at the Howard Manor. He's rated very big and so is his pretty sidekick, Gloria.

Tough blow for the Ellington band, having four of its members busted for suspicion of using heroin . . . Including the great Paul Gonsalves, probably one of the greatest tenor sax players who ever raised a horn to his lips . . . (His Newport Jazz Festival tracks are tremendous) . . . Which isn't to say he's absolved because he plays good jazz . . . In fact, with so many young people looking to jazz as "their" music, it behooves Gonsalves and all the rest of the players in the country to strive a bit harder for a character that will uphold the near idolatry in which they're held . . .

Irving Epstein may close the big, 5,100-seat Fox West Coast Theater on Market Street in San Francisco . . . The theater, biggest on the coast, has been losing money for years . . .

MARIE ANTOINETTE SANDWICH — an acknowledgement of the famous queen's declaration that her subjects should eat cake — put in an appearance at the Hot Dog Show of Palm Springs this week along with a less ostentatious companion, the Louis XV Hamburger. Feature of Marie Antoinette sandwich, here being assembled for eating by Jan Sheridan, is a prime filet mignon, specially cut for the hamburger bun. (Sun Photo)

DESERT SUN SCHOOL'S BAND IN PD MUSICALE

PALM DESERT — What has been unofficially described as "America's First Compact Band," the Falcons of Desert Sun School in Idyllwild, recently made their away - from - home debut at the Shadow Mountain Club, playing for the weekly meeting of that community's Rotary Club.

The ten bandmen ranging from 8th to 12th graders under the direction of Phil Butler, made an impressive appearance in their blue and grey ivy league outfits, and their new set of matched band instruments.

The music too was well received as expressed by a return invitation from the Rotarians later in the season.

Thunderbird Houses in Club Tour

The Palm Springs Branch of American Association of University Women in presenting its fifth annual home tour is showing some of the most spectacular houses in the world famous Thunderbird area. Through the generosity of public spirited owners these houses, most of them well known to readers of Sunday supplements and national periodicals, can be viewed by the public on Sunday, March 5, from 1 to 5 p. m.

The four houses represented are: Mel Eaton home, a beautiful example of European decor; the Leonard Firestone home, a delightful interpretation of desert living; the Robert McCulloch home, famous for its mechanization; and the newly completed Louise Nicoletti home, which represents a superb background for entertaining. These large, luxurious homes, so diverse in their conceptions, are alike only in that they are uninhibited by the considerations that bog down most people who dream of the perfect house.

For several years, Palm Springs Branch of the American Association of University Women has been showing outstanding homes in Palm Springs for their Scholarship Fund. This year in moving to the golf club area a new vista will be opened to those who have followed the tours with so much interest.

Tickets will be available at the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce or at any of the houses the day of the tour.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

From dude ranch to dean of the desert's golf courses... Thunderbird Country Club has come a long way in a short time... and it's members joined in joyous celebration of its 11th anniversary this week at its Anniversary Ball... As is customary... the Ball honored the club President Eric Stainton... who was presented with an inscribed watch and money clip... The first Anniversary Ball in the newly redecorated clubhouse... it was a smart affair... with elegant table decorations of golden trees hung with clusters of white flowers... and the smooth music of Joe Mooshay... but it was a time for sentiment too... for looking back... and for looking ahead...

Frank Bogert... who started the dude ranch which grew into a golf club... and was Thunderbird's first manager... was there with his pretty wife Janice... There, too, was Johnny Dawson... Thunderbird's first president... Rounding out Thunderbird's chain of command... the Fred Karlens and the Kent Hayes' were honor guests... and it was Kent Hayes... Thunderbird's third president... who presented President Stainton with his presidential gift...

Looking at the beautiful green golf course... the trees and the luxury fairway homes... it is difficult to realize that this man-made beauty spot was sand dunes and desert shrubs not too long ago... Today it's internationally known... and it's color ful Thunderbird insignia belongs with the world's greatest... It's a playground for financiers and socialites... for celebrities and world leaders... and one of the desert's proudest possessions... As Kent Hayes said... "A lot of energy by a lot of people" went into its creation and development...

The two women who headed the Ball were Mrs. Harold Cooper and Mrs. Paul Reynolds... Assisting them were... Mmes. Joseph Hale, Fred Klemp, Joseph Hutchins... Frank Godchaux, Al Newland, Robert Hall and George Roberson...

Preceding the Ball... the Harold Coopers entertained in the Fiesta Room... honoring Marion and Eric Stainton... A handsome Success brings its penalties... The day one of Helen Braunschweiger's paintings... which had been hanging in the California Art Club showing at the Wilshire Federal Gallery... was chosen by the board and art jury... to be included in the big new exhibit at the Tower Gallery... there was a swanky reception with the L. A. Mayor there and all the notables... but instead of being at the reception basking in the glory... Helen was over at Scorpio Gallery in her Marusia work smock... supervising the hanging of the 63 paintings which will be included in her one woman show at that gallery... The show opens Tuesday night and runs for a month...

Bea and George Goldstein have invitations out for cocktails and dinner at their Tamarisk Country Club home... on February 19th...

Some of those fascinating portraits of big-eyed children... by Keane... are in the current display at Ferralls' Deep Well Playhouse... Almost as big eyed is that cute little trick Arlene Hedrick... who looks something like the original "boop-boop-a-doop girl"... and is appearing in the musical "The Boy Friend" which is at the Playhouse this week and next...

Arriving tonight by Bonanza... for a fortnight's visit with Mrs. Sydney Schiff at the Racquet Club is Mrs. Jean Picot de Moras of Paris and Chicago...

COPLAND WORKS TO BE PRESENTED

Aaron Copland will be honored by "The New York Philharmonic Young People's Concert" with Leonard Bernstein Sunday, Feb. 12 (4-5 p.m.), on the CBS Television Network.

The concert will be devoted entirely to the American composer's work, and will feature Copland conducting the concluding number on the program, "El Salon Mexico." William Warfield, baritone, will be soloist for the concert.

Recently Copland celebrated his 60th birthday, which provided the occasion for this salute to his work. The composer's "Outdoor Overture" will open the program, which will also include selections from the "Statements for Orchestra," "Music for the Theatre," "Our Town" and "Rodeo." Warfield will sing Copland arrangements of early American songs, including "Boatman's Dance," "Simple Gifts" and "I Bought Me a Cat."

Roger Englander is producer-director of "The New York Philharmonic Young People's Concerts," which are presented under the supervision of Richard I. Levine.

Groucho Marx Folding Show After 12 Years

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Groucho Marx announced today he is folding his popular "You Bet Your Life" television show after 12 dazzingly successful years.
The deadpan comedian isn't leaving video, however.
He's cranking up a new quiz-interview series titled "What Do You Want?" which is scheduled to replace "You Bet Your Life" next fall.

HOW DOES GROUCHO feel about killing off the longest-running show in NBC history?

"I don't feel anything," he said, puffing on a cigar.

"TV is a good racket. The show paid well and wasn't too much work. It's been darn good to me. When we started on radio I had no idea it would last 14 years."

IT WAS RUMORED the mustache-comedian would switch to a situation comedy next season.

"Not me," he exclaimed. "That means working five days a week in some drab studio. On my show

I only work a few hours one day a week. Every Wednesday night I show up at the studio at 6 o'clock to discuss the contestants. Then I go out to dinner and return at 8:30 to film the show until 10:30.

"I don't want to work any harder than that. I don't have to," Grocho again will lean heavily on humor in his new show.

"WE'LL HAVE ALL different kinds of people on the program who have a good answer to 'What do you want?' he said.
"Maybe we'll have a gambler who wants to expose card sharks, or a husband, or a mother searching for a missing son."
"But I'll have to be funny."

Given Key Role

HOLLYWOOD — UPI — Carleton Young has been signed for the key role of Capt. Macklin in "Armored Command," scheduled to go before Allied Artists' cameras soon.

The film, to be made in Munich and Hohenfels, Germany, will star Howard Keel and Tina Louise.

When viewers tune in to see a comedian they feel cheated if he doesn't make them laugh.

"IN FACT THAT'S the trouble with TV today, there's hardly any comedy left on the air except for a few Westerns. I have to stay up late to see who's on Jack Paar's show if I want to see comedy."

"And situation comedies aren't funny at all. They're all right for kids, but they just aren't funny. They can't be because sponsors are afraid of offending someone. And I can't blame them. Maybe I'd feel the same way if I were trying to sell a product on TV."

"ONE OF THE reasons these new comedy records are selling so well is that people can't find laughs on television. It's just not a comedian's medium."

"In the days of vaudeville a comic would walk on stage and say anything he pleased without worrying about offending anyone. We'll be as funny as possible on the new show and at the same time try not to step on anyone's toes."

ucation at Los Angeles State College. The professors recently accompanied a group of 200 students in a 3-day tour of El Dorado Palms. Decorator furnished model homes are open for inspection daily and Sunday.

Sen. Tydings

Succumbs at 70

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md. (AP) — Former Sen. Millard Tydings, who battled giants in war and public life, died of pneumonia Thursday night at the age of 70.

The colorful Maryland Democrat challenged President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal policies as too leftist, even for his progressive philosophy, and won reelection to the Senate in 1938 in spite of a presidential purge attempt.

Indio Downs Indians 42-37

Walton Stars for Rajahs

Palm Springs High Indians were still looking for their first win of the season in Desert Valley League after they bowed Friday night to Indio's Rajahs on the local floor, 37 to 42.

It was a former Indian, Gus Walton, now transferred to Indio High, who played a leading part as villain as he bucketed 16 points and was all over the place in the Rajah's win.

THE RESULT left the Indians deep in the cellar of the DVL with an 0-6 record.

Tyrone Taylor of the Tribe kept up his scoring rush with 16 points to the Walton for the game's high.

Indio went ahead one point in the third period in which the lead changed hands several times and started the final period leading 31-30. In that canto, they drew away from the Tribe 11-7 to win 42-37.

Palm Springs B's kept the evening from being a total loss by outscoring the Indio B's 33 to 31 in a fast game.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — IM — Middleweight Gene Fullmer and heavyweight Floyd Patterson are strongly favored to retain their crowns in separate fights next month, according to pricemakers here.

The pricemakers posted their first odds Friday. They favored Patterson 17-5 over former champion Ingemar Johansson in their heavyweight match at Miami Beach, Fla., March 13. Fullmer stands 12-5 over Sugar Ray Robinson in their March 4 brawl here.

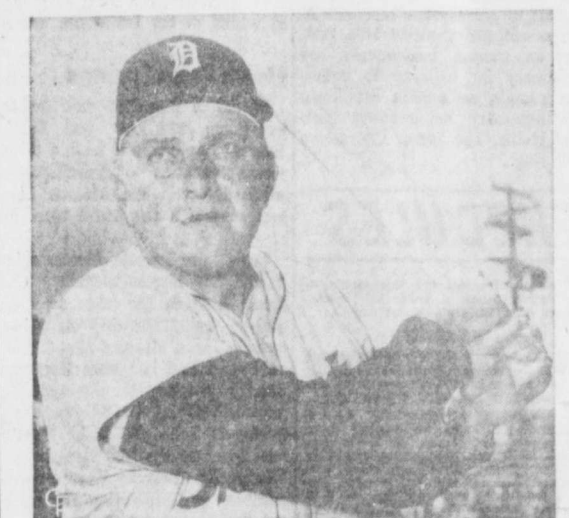

Also listed by the oddsmakers of this gambling city as a combination price on the two underdogs, but winning of 1-12.

Los Angeles American League Angels will bring plenty of long-ball hitters to Polo Grounds Feb. 24 with the announcement that Steve Bilko, who hit 56 homers at Wrigley Field when an Angel in the Pacific Coast League, had returned his signed contract to general manager Fred Haney of the club.

Ted Kluszewski, Big Klu, averaged more than 40 home runs for four years with the Cincinnati Reds, is another expected to provide manager Bill Rigney with plenty of power as he Bob Cerv and Ken Hunt.

Kluszewski was hampered with back trouble last year and it was blamed on the damp climate of the Florida training camp. He is looking forward to the dry climate of Los Angeles.

Harmonizing and Tompion Trying For Comebacks

By United Press International
Sa-Je Stable's Harmonizing and C. V. Whitney's Tompion, disappointments so far this year, seek to crack the win column in today's rich races while Bowie race track, getting a break from the weatherman for a change, reopens its meeting after a seven-day layoff.

Harbor View Farm's Wolfram and Harmonizing head a field of 12 in the $75,000 added Healeah Turf Cup at 1 1/2 miles. The French bred Wolfram, winner of the Bougainvillea Handicap, also on grass two weeks ago, rates the nod over Harmonizing, which finished 10th in that race.

Wolfram carries 118 pounds and Johnny Rotz, Harmonizing, top weighted at 124 pounds, has Johnny Ruane in the saddle.

Tompion totes high weight of 125 pounds and Willie Shoemaker in leading a field of 13 postward for the $30,000 added Santa Anita Handicap at Santa Anita. T. V. Lark rates close behind, carrying 124 pounds and Eddie Arcaro.

Williams Two Strokes Up in Phoenix Open

Palmer Hangs On To Pace with 65 And Four Birdies

PHOENIX, Ariz. IM — Cubby Henry Williams, a veteran from Fleetwood, Pa., led the pack into the third round of the $30,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament today—but the ever-threatening Arnold Palmer was the man to watch.

Williams set a course record of seven-under-par 63 Friday. But Palmer finished off a round of 65 by birdieing the last four holes in a row.

"The putter just got hot for a change," said Palmer. "I think I'm playing a bit better."

Williams has a nine-under-par 131 score for the first 36 holes. Dave Marr, Sun City, Ariz., is in second place with 133; and Palmer is tied with Don January, Dallas, Tex., at 134.

Williams had six birdies and an eagle on his round against a single bogey and he had nines of 31-32 over the flat, sun-banked Arizona Country Club course.

But Palmer's grand finish after a shaky start, when he took a double-bogey six on the first hole, held the 5,000 fans spellbound. He knocked in putts of 28, 8, 8 and 25 feet on those last four holes — the last one before the entire gallery and TV cameras.

Moyer and Scott Even Money in TV Bout Tonight

NEW YORK IM — Baby-faced Denny Moyer, a sizzling substitute, faces hard-hitting Charley Scott tonight in a battle of welterweight contenders at Madison Square Garden.

Although 21-year-old Moyer of Portland, Ore., took this match against left-hooker Scott of Philadelphia on 10 days notice, the betting is at even money (6-5) and pick 'em.

Their 10 - rounder will be televised nationally by ABC at 10 p. m. EST.

Louise Suggs in Quest of Third

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. IM — Louise Suggs aimed for three in a row today.

She won her first 1961 event on the professional women's golf tour at Sea Island, Ga., the second at Naples, Fla., and today she went into the third round of the St. Petersburg Women's Open with a one-stroke lead at 140.

Nello Di-Grandi scored 219 for high men's game in the His and Hers league and Bill Thompson hung up a 211 score in the Monday Night Service league. John Thalib had a 202 in the Franchise league and Otto Smidl an even 200 in the Industrial league.

Bob Blauvelt hit 231 high game and 647 series in the Guys and Dolls league and Bev Midstokke gave the men bowlers something to think about with her 229 high game in the Palmettes play. Robbie Kaptur paced the women in the Guys and Dolls league with a score of 193.

PALM SPRINGS LANES

Sunrise Bowling league's 1961 season is under way at the Palm Springs Lanes with teams from Biltmore Hotel, Ocotillo, Sherman's, Palm Springs Lanes and Chi Chi competing in the opening night. Trophies were awarded for scores of 175 or more.

Receiving trophies were Lou Mawby and Bill Alexander from the Chi Chi, Arthur Lickers from the Chi Chi, Paul Tyler from Sher-mans and Don Balallo from the Biltmore.

The Sunrise Bowling league was started last year by culinary workers for action in the wee small hours after they have finished serving the public — bartenders, waitresses, waiters, bus boys. League plays starts at 2:30 a.m. Thursdays.

Marian F. Lickers, acting secretary of the league said "we are anxious to increase the league to at least 12 teams. This is a mixed league, four on a team. Right now we have a sponsor looking for a team. Anyone interested in joining the Sunrise League is asked to contact Arthur Lickers, president, at FA 4-4072 or Fred Scarms, manager of the Palm Springs Lanes.

Trojans Edge Stanford to Hold Lead

By MIKE HUDSON
United Press International

For the second straight Saturday evening, the pressure is on UCLA to match the feats of arch-rival Southern California or else fall out of contention in the Big Five race.

Last week the Trojans downed the Bruins on Friday, but the Bruins fought back with a key win Saturday. This week's test for Coach John Wooden's gunners may be equally severe.

USC outgained Stanford at the latter's shoe box gym Friday night 63-57. The nationally sixth ranked Trojans thus have carved out a 7-1 record in Big Five action.

UCLA, 3-2, faces the Cards at Stanford tonight in a "must-win" situation.

TROY'S PEERLESS John Rudometkin bucketed 22 against the tough Card defense Friday night and thus broke the Trojan season record of 463 set by Danny Rogers in 1957. Rudometkin has 466 with plenty of games ahead, not to mention another season in '61-'62.

He got strong help Friday night from Chris Appel, who made 16, and Verne Ashby who tallied 11 while riding the boards hard. John Hendry and John Windsor scored 18 and 13 for the Indians. California sank out of sight as Washington rang up a convincing 70-50 victory over the toothless Bears. The Huskies are playing like champs these days but their four losses nullify title hopes. The once-mighty Bears are 0-5 in conference action and looking worse each week.

Chargers Get Move Approval

SAN DIEGO IM — The city of San Diego today officially owned its first major league athletic team — Barron Hilton's Chargers of the American Football League.

In a telephonic poll conducted Friday by AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, the league directors voted unanimously to approve Hilton's application to transfer the Los Angeles franchise to San Diego. The approval left Los Angeles once again with just one pro football team, the Rams of the National

OWN DENMARK'S LARGEST

Danish Couple Buy Motel at DHS

By ELLEN SAUNDERS
DESERT HOT SPRINGS — "I love your people and your food and I find your country perfectly fascinating," announced Thorkild Nielsen of Denmark. He and his American-born wife, Sallie, own the Witttrup Motel — Scandinavia's largest — on the outskirts of Copenhagen, and have just purchased the Keers Motel at 66-197 Cahulla Avenue, here from Claude and Marie Reiber.

"Europe had never seen a motel until my wife built ours in 1955," said Nielsen proudly.

"IT WAS A terrific gamble," admitted Nielsen, born and educated in Denmark, ex-wife of a Navy officer and mother of three children, who had gone to Europe in 1953 as a civilian teacher with the Air Force, "but I had a family to support. The first year was tough but now we turn away an average of 100 people every night during the summer."

"We thought our restaurant with its American style cooking and barbecue pit would attract Europeans, but it was the American tourist who sought us out. Gradually, however, curiosity got the better of the Danes, and they came to see what we had. Automobiles are more numerous than ever in Europe today, consequently our clientele is now very cosmopolitan."

RATES ARE CHEAP by American standards, said Nielsen. A double room with a bath in any of the Witttrup's 56 units costs $5.60 daily. Singles are priced at $4 and for the budget-minded there's an eight room tourist camp with very low rates.

"We reduce our rates still lower in the winter, when travel is greatly curtailed," Nielsen continued. "We have very little sun in the winter, that's why it's so marvelous here. Everything looks grey."

New Western Route Shows Airport Need

CAB Authorizes Direct Flight From Bay Area

The ever-increasing need for control of the Palm Springs Airport was spotlighted even more today as word was received here that a new two-plane service between Palm Springs and Portland and Seattle will soon be inaugurated by Western Airlines.

The start of the new service was given in a decision by a hearing officer of the Civil Aeronautics Board during its two-year-old hearing of the "Pacific Southwest Local Service Case."

RECENTLY THE hearing officer recommended that Western Air Lines be permitted to overfly the Los Angeles gateway, thus giving Palm Springs a non-stop service between here and San Francisco. The result should provide a tremendous boost in passengers from the northwest to Palm Springs.

In the past, passengers would enplane at Portland, fly to Los Angeles where they would have an inconvenient lay over or be forced to change planes again.

The result of the present decision is to give Portland and Seattle passengers two plane service to Palm Springs without the inconvenience occasioned by the required stop at the Los Angeles gateway.

OF THE MANY different route problems undertaken in the Pacific southwest case, the most important to Palm Springs was the originating of a flight to San Francisco, overflying the Los Angeles gateway.

In making the announcement of the coming change, which should commence about Nov. 1, 1961, City Attorney Jerry Bunker pointed out the need now is for the people to approve the airport bond issue on March 14.

U. S. Netted 1,102 Tax Raps in '60

WASHINGTON — The government reported Wednesday it obtained 1,285 indictments and 1,102 convictions in criminal tax fraud cases in 1960.

Both figures represented increases from 1959, the Internal Revenue Service said in a summary of its enforcement activities last year.

U.S. Will File On Electrical Price-Riggers

WASHINGTON — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy announced yesterday that the government will file damage suits "within two months" against the electrical firms sentenced earlier this week for price fixing and rigging contracts.

The President's brother said at least 20 agencies of the federal government have purchased equipment from the 29 manufacturers of heavy electrical equipment who were sentenced in Philadelphia to fines totaling nearly $2 million.

IN A TWO-PARAGRAPH announcement, the attorney general said "the Justice Department expects to file the first complaint within two months."

Cities and other government units throughout the nation were preparing to start similar damage suits. Mayor Robert F. Wagner announced in New York Wednesday that his city would seek treble damages from the General Electric Company and other firms involved.

Stocks of the companies facing suit dropped sharply on the New York Stock Exchange today. General Electric opened at $66 a share, down nearly $2, and Westinghouse, also late, opened at $43 down $2.37.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT said: "The Justice Department is preparing damage suits in the electrical antitrust cases for the Tennessee Valley Authority, a government corporation, and on behalf of all other branches of the executive department."

"The Justice Department expects to file the first complaint within two months. At least 20 agencies of the executive branch have purchased equipment from the manufacturers of heavy electrical equipment who are involved in the antitrust case."

Under the law, the federal government may sue for actual damages for antitrust violations. Other victims of monopolistic practices may sue for triple damages under the Clayton Antitrust Law.

U.S. BANS DETAIL ON NEW 'SPUTNIK'

WASHINGTON — A Defense Department information ban today helped shroud the fate of Russia's six-day-old, 7½-ton Sputnik VII.

Air Force and defense sources hinted there had been no difficulty in tracking the Soviet satellite. They said the information ban merely created an appearance of mystery concerning the Sputnik's whereabouts.

THE ONLY PUBLICLY reported Western observation of the satellite was by the Royal Observatory at Edinburgh, Scotland. This was made possible by information furnished by the Russians.

L. J. Carter, secretary of the British Interplanetary Society, said the Western "confusion" showed that a spy satellite "can whirl around the earth undetected." The Defense Department refused to comment.

THE WHITE HOUSE disclosed earlier, however, that the U. S. detected the Sputnik even before its launching was announced by the Russians. Less than a week before the launching, the Defense
